John Does It Again!

Voted
Best Impersonator and Comedian
for the 4th Consecutive Year
by the Las Vegas Review Journal

Late December 2022 - In an impressive and unprecedented run, Johnny D once again secured a winning spot in the Las Vegas Review Journal as best impersonator and comedian (Silver and Bronze). This is John's 4th consecutive win.

With that win, John continues to demonstrate that he successfully and continually refines his character studies, comedy writing and performances to bring his best to the stage. Year after year.

And while the accolade is a public acknowledgement of John's talent, the meat and potatoes of John's business is corporate.

Comedian

This win is a solid confirmation that John can literally bring the "best" to meetings and events.

Whether that's through his business-appropriate and spot-on impersonations, or as himself as host, John is known to deliver meeting content in a myriad of voices, including his own, that will create a big buzz on-site and long after.

According to Jack Rickenbach, Aranco Productions, "John has been our first choice for hosting meetings globally as himself and as his characters for over 20 years and will continue to be. He brings a unique skill set to the table, he's experienced as a live performer, as on camera talent, voice over artist, writer, director, creative director and most importantly, a great collaborator."

In a remarkable upset, Johnny D took over the bronze from Carrot Top and a friendly ruckus on Facebook followed.

Carrot Top ranted about how John stole the election; and John, as Trump, fired back. Eventually Carrot Top conceded and all is now back in order in Las Vegas, the entertainment capital of the world.

Dr. Phil Opens MAGNA's Annual Battle of the Experts Conference

Each year, Magna Legal Services, an end-to-end litigation support service for law firms, corporations, and governmental agencies nationwide, holds their national sales conference for 250+ attorneys and insurance representatives.

This year John, alongside Peter Hecht, Founder and VP Sales, hosted the opening reception as Austin Powers and the general session as Dr. Phil.

And in his indubitable way, Dr. Phil set the stage for the meeting by addressing the learning experience ahead and how to open

Trump Hosts Roast at the State Restaurant Holiday Awards Dinner

Not only did Trump host a roast at the State Restaurant Equipment Company holiday awards dinner, but he chopped it, filleted, and smoked it!

Established in 1967, State Restaurant Equipment Co. is a fully integrated distributor and supplier of foodservice equipment to restaurants and resorts.

And in the spirit of the holiday, State not only wanted to say thank you to all of their employees and to present awards for extraordinary achievements but also wanted to entertain them with a special roast of their top executives. Including Scott Miller, CEO.

So from one CEO to another, neural pathways to the brain to be receptive to new information.

It was a fun and funny way to kick-off and set the tone for the experience.

Donald J. Trump was brought on board to do the honor.

With a special stash of material written just for the occasion, Johnny D, as Trump, lit up the room with spirited laughter.

FROM THE SUBLIME TO THE RIDICULOUS

John Gives Back to His Community and Volunteers for the Cops 4 Kids Golf Tournament

The Cops 4 Kids Golf Tournament is hosted by the Police Managers and Supervisors Association (PMSA) Charitable Foundation.

PMSA raises money for organizations such as the Veteran's Tribute Career and Technical Academy, Ronald McDonald House, Children with Cancer, Katlyn's Dream, Friends of Metro, Injured Police Officers Fund, James D. Hoff Memorial, Miracle League of Las Vegas, Police Unity Tour, college scholarships, and much more.

John is a big believer in giving back to his community and makes himself available for lots of charity events. But this one was especially important, so John stepped up and out as DJT to welcome the golfers back from the course and to help get the party started in honor of the kids!

Howard Stern Grills Johnny D, as Trump, 3X in a Week

Best known for his controversial broadcasts, Howard Stern has conducted the most brilliant celebrity interviews ever heard. Candid and sometimes combative, Howard is not afraid to ask the tough questions.

And for 3 years, with over 30 appearances, Stern has challenged Trump, aka John Di Domenico, with some of the toughest questions. And Trump, always himself, never fails to deliver some pretty wild and hilarious perspectives.

In December, Stern relentlessly grilled Trump about his Mar-A-Lago dinner guest, Ye (formerly known as Kanye West) and Ye's infamous friend and guest, who tagged along and who shall not be named.

Trump, of course, pulled out some very, shall we say, creative responses.

The interview can be heard on the SiriusXM Howard Stern radio archives.
